YORKSHIRE BUILDING SOCIETY GROUP - TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF PANEL APPOINTMENT

1. General

- 1.1 Your appointment to our conveyancing panel is subject to these terms. Your acceptance of instructions from us is on the basis that you accept these terms. All mortgage work that you do on our behalf must be carried out in accordance with these terms, the written instructions that we give you and the CML Lenders' Handbook or any alternative set of standard instructions to which we may subsequently subscribe.
- 1.2 The phrases "you" and "your" mean any sole practitioner, partnership, limited liability incorporated practice (this includes all partners and all directors), licensed conveyancer or in Scotland independent qualified conveyancer.
- 1.3 "Us", "our" and "we" mean Yorkshire Building Society Group ("the Society").

2. Your Obligations

You agree:

- 2.1 To act for us at the practising address(es) noted on our records. Your office(s) will be open during normal office hours in your locality. We must be able to contact you between the hours of 9am to 5pm through Monday to Friday, except on Bank and Public Holidays.
- 2.2 If you are a sole practitioner, to arrange for appropriate cover where necessary. Your locum must be a member of our conveyancing panel.
- 2.3 To notify us in writing, of any change in your details as held on our records for example, change of address, telephone number, document exchange number, email address and client account bank details. Notification must be given to us at least 10 days before the change will be effective.
- 2.4 You must maintain access to the internet and be able to communicate with us using email. You must take reasonable steps to ensure that any computer equipment you use in connection with our mortgages is secure from unauthorised access. You must back up information held on your computer system relating to our mortgages at intervals of no more than one week.
- 2.5 To notify us promptly in writing of any changes to the structure of your practice, including but not limited to a change from a sole practitioner to a partnership or, in any case, a change to a limited liability partnership, legal disciplinary partnership, incorporated practice or alternative business structure.
- 2.6 To notify us immediately in writing if any of the events referred to in 5.2 below occur.
- 2.7 To at all times maintain a current practising certificate/licence for all partners/directors and legally qualified fee earners free from conditions (other than general conditions relating to training and indemnity). If any such conditions are applied you must notify us immediately and provide certified copies of the relevant practising certificate. If we request, you must produce certified copies of any practising certificates to us.
- 2.8 To keep in force at all times appropriate professional indemnity insurance and, if we request, to produce a certified copy of the insurance policy to us together with evidence of payment of the last premium due under the policy.
- 2.9 If at any time you enter the Assigned Risk Pool (solicitor practices in England and Wales only) you will notify us in writing immediately, you must also inform us immediately of any changes to your professional indemnity insurance.
- 2.10 To carry out our instructions with reasonable care and skill, ensuring that all employees carrying out mortgage work on our behalf are qualified and competent to do so.
- 2.11 To reply promptly to correspondence from us and to keep us advised of any delay or difficulty in carrying out our mortgage instructions or other matters which may be prejudicial to our interests.
- 2.12 That any title deeds or other documents you borrow from us in connection with the personal mortgage of a partner or director at your firm must be requested by a partner or director other than the partner or director concerned and the transaction must be handled by that other partner or director. If you are a sole practitioner and require the loan of title deeds or other documents in connection with your own mortgage, you must nominate a different firm on our panel to request the deeds or documents and handle the transaction.
- 2.13 That you have the consent of all borrowers to apply for the title deeds or other documents, before making any request for deeds or documents. We will accept your request for title deeds or other documents on the understanding that you have obtained such consent. If this is not the case then you should advise our Mortgage Service Department in writing when you make your request.
- 2.14 To immediately return our title deeds or other documents when required by us to do so.
- 2.15 To keep us informed of the reasons for any delay in your being able to send confirmation of completion of registration of our mortgage or standard security, the title deeds and or any other documents we require to us within two months.
- 2.16 To be responsible for the reconstitution of the title deeds or other documents (whether the title is registered or unregistered, at your own cost), where any title deeds or other documents in your possession, or which were last known to be in your possession, go missing. This also applies to any title deeds or other documents which are lost, mislaid or go missing whilst in transit to us from your practice whether by ordinary, recorded or special delivery post, DX, courier or any other method whatsoever.
- 2.17 To forward the title deeds and other documents to another solicitor/conveyancer within 24 hours of an instruction from us requiring you to do so. On forwarding the deeds or documents as instructed you will confirm to us that you have done so. Upon receipt of your confirmation, we will release you from all undertakings relating to your holding the title deeds or documents.
- 2.18 That all title deeds and other documents in your possession from time to time relating to a property that we have an interest in as mortgagee (heritable creditor in Scotland), will be held safely and to our order and that no lien will be created or exercised over them.
- 2.19 At all times to observe and comply with the provisions of the Data Protection Act 1998.

For evidential purposes, you must keep your file for a minimum of seven years from the date of the mortgage before destroying it. Microfiche or data imaging is suitable compliance with this requirement. It is important to retain these documents to protect our interests. Where you are processing personal data (as defined in the Data Protection Act 1998) on our behalf you must:

- take such security measures as are required to enable you to comply with obligations equivalent to those imposed on us by the seventh data protection principle in the 1998 Act; and
- process such personal data only in accordance with our instructions. In addition, you must allow us to conduct such reasonable audit of your information security measures as we require to ensure your compliance with our obligations in this paragraph.

2.20 Not to set off or claim any lien over monies, which you have received by way of advance or redemption from or on behalf of Yorkshire Building Society.

2.21 To indemnify us against all losses sustained by us and against all costs, claims, demand and liability arising out of any breach by you of your obligations including but not limited to payment of any administration charges or legal costs levied under clause 3.3 or 3.4 below.

2.22 All copy documentation produced with your application and all future copy documentation must be full true copies of the original documents.

2.23 To ensure that only appropriately qualified conveyancers are authorised to sign Certificates of Title

3. Our Rights

We have the following rights:

3.1 to visit (together with any appropriate third party) the practising address(es) at any time during normal working hours, that being between 9am and 5pm Monday to Friday (excluding Bank or Public Holidays) for the purpose of inspecting all documents and files relating to transactions carried out on our behalf and where necessary for the purposes of taking copies, examining, verifying and/or retrieving all title deeds, other documents and papers held by you on our behalf;

3.2 to call for certified copies of your practising certificates or licences and insurance policies from time to time for inspection purposes;

3.3 where deeds are outstanding for longer than a period which we consider reasonable without a reasonable explanation being provided to our Mortgage Service Department, and/or we are not satisfied that you are complying with these terms and conditions, then we may commence tracking and monitoring procedures which may include:

- sending tracking letters to you and visits by our representatives (see 3.1 above);
- reviewing your panel status, which may result in your being removed from our panel;
- instructing in-house or external lawyers to assist us in retrieving or reconstituting outstanding title deeds title deeds or other documents;

where it is necessary for us to invoke these procedures, you will be responsible for all in-house and external legal and administrative costs and expenses that we incur. We may also suspend further instructions to you during the monitoring process.

4. Periodic Review

We will review these terms from time to time and may vary them upon giving you not less than 14 days notice in writing. Where it is necessary to vary these items, we will provide you with a full copy of varied terms upon requests.

5. Termination

5.1 You may terminate your panel appointment with us, upon giving us not less than 14 days written notice.

5.2 Your panel appointment may be suspended or terminated by us at any time. Under no circumstances shall we be under any obligation to explain to you the reason for your suspension or termination. Your appointment shall in any event terminate automatically upon any one or more of the following events occurring.

5.2.1 you ceasing to carry on a business or trade as a solicitor/licensed conveyancer or your practice being dissolved or wound up whether voluntarily or compulsorily or any partner/director being presented with a bankruptcy petition or entering into any agreement or arrangement with creditors;or

5.2.2 you having an intervention agent or judicial factor appointed by the Solicitors Regulation Authority, Council for Licensed Conveyancers, Law Society or Scotland, Law Society or Northern Ireland or other regulator in respect of the practice or in respect of any matter on which instructions have been received from us;

5.2.3 any partner/director being charged with any criminal offence (other than an offence under the Road Traffic Acts).

5.3 Following termination you;

5.3.1 shall no longer be instructed to act on our behalf and any new instructions received after the date of termination shall be returned immediately to the address from which they were sent.

5.3.2 shall, if required in writing by us, deal with all outstanding instructions in accordance with our further instructions and, if so required, return advance funds and all title deeds and other documents in your possession to us or any person or firm nominated by us.

6. Waiver

Any failure or neglect by us to enforce at any time any of these provisions shall not be construed or deemed to be a waiver of our rights, nor in any way affect the validity of the whole or any part of these terms, nor prejudice our rights to take subsequent action.

7. Notices

All notices required to be given under these terms shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been given when delivered, if delivered by messenger, during normal business hours (as defined in clause 2.1); when sent, if transmitted by email or facsimile transmission, during normal business hours; or on the second business day following mailing if mailed by recorded or registered mail, or first class mail postage prepaid or Document Exchange.
